

Please do not let banks or other financial institutions bypass the no call list. All businesses, including banks, should have to comply with the no call regulations. Banks are more of a nuisance that window and siding salespeople!